UNABLE TO FIND TRACE OF THAW

Police of United States and Canada Are Baffled.

HOPE FOR HIS RECAPTURE

New York Authorities Secure Warrant Charging Fugitive From Matteawan Asylum With Conspiracy, the Claim Being Made That Such an Offense Is Extraditable.

New York, Aug. 19.—The police of the United States and Canada have not picked up the trail of Harry K. Thaw.

They seek him not as the slayer of Stanford White or as an escaped lunatic, but on a warrant issued at Poughkeepsie charging him with conspiring with the aged keeper, Howard Barnum, and the five men who managed the asylum delivery.

On such a technicality does New York state base its hope of bringing about the fugitive's return.

Both factions of the double barreled government at Albany have promised rigid investigations and every effort to bring about his capture.

Thaw's seclusion was absolute. Out of the cloud of dust which swirled in the wake of the black automobile bearing him and his liberators from Matteawan Sunday morning nothing tangible had come except a laconic letter from Thaw himself, assuring his aged mother in New York that he desired rest and would, in due time, join her at the Thaw country place, Elmhurst, at Cresson, Pa.

Mrs. Thaw Receives Note.

Happy, girlish almost in her joy, Mrs. Thaw exhibited the hastily scrawled note from the son whose escapades have cost the family a million and added that whatever Harry did would meet with her approval.

This, in view of his announced intention of entering Pennsylvania, gave basis to the belief that Thaw was preparing to make his case before the courts of that state, and, relying on the kink in American laws relative to the insane charged with no crime, to oppose extradition and duplicate in Pennsylvania, if possible, the course of John Armstrong Chaloner in Virginia.

It was in anticipation of such a move that the New York authorities caused the warrant to be sworn out at Poughkeepsie.

Conspiracy, according to the district attorney of Dutchess county, constitutes an extraditable offense.

Close associates to the family indicated that the groundwork of a legal fight in Pennsylvania had already been laid.

Dr. Britton D. Evans, the alienist who testified in Thaw's behalf at the murder trials, held a telephone conference with Mrs. Thaw and it was said that he would accompany her to Pennsylvania.

There are to be conferences with counsel and meantime, it is understood, Thaw is to remain in hiding.

Trail Completely Lost.

Figuratively, as well as literally, Thaw left behind him only a cloud of Dutchess county dust.

Rumors of his passage, description of black automobiles, tales of yacht boardings in Long Island sound, speckled the news. The yacht Endymion of George Lauder, Jr., a distant relative of the Thaws by marriage, found mention in the crop of rumors. After having left Vineyard Haven, Mass., the craft was reported as cruising somewhere in the sound, possibly not far from South Norwalk, Conn.

While there was nothing to support the theory that Thaw had taken to the seas this seemed to those who have followed the case to be the likeliest course.

One route from Matteawan lay north to Canada and thence southwest along the border of the Great Lakes and across Lake Erie to a north jutting nub of Pennsylvania. The other is the water route.

Aboard ship in the South Thaw could bide his time in comparative safety and make his way to Philadelphia via Delaware bay and the Delaware river.

In view of the fact that entrance into Canada might mean a clash with the immigration authorities the theory was advanced that Thaw's advisers would not have him take any such risk.

ISSUES WARRANT FOR THAW

District Attorney Accuses Fugitive of Conspiracy.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., Aug. 19.—If Harry K. Thaw has not left the country he will be arrested on a warrant charging him with conspiracy and returned to the Matteawan state hospital.

Action with this end in view was taken in a special term of the supreme court when Justice Joseph Morschauer issued a warrant for the arrest of Thaw, charging him with conspiracy with Keeper Howard Barnum and five other men in making his escape from Matteawan.

Similar warrants were also issued for Richard J. Butler, Roger Thompson, Michael O'Keefe, Eugene Duffy

and Thomas Flood, Thaw's alleged accomplices.

Keeper Barnum, the guard, who opened the hospital gate when Thaw escaped, has been held without bail for examination Thursday.

District Attorney Congor claims conspiracy is an extraditable charge and that Thaw can be brought back to Dutchess county, no matter to what state he fled.

TO PROBE ESCAPE OF THAW

Both Claimants to Governorship Agree on Inquiry.

Albany, N. Y., Aug. 19.—Harry K. Thaw's escape from the Matteawan state hospital will be thoroughly investigated by the state. Upon this the rival claimants for the governorship are agreed.

Acting Governor Glynn announced that he had taken steps that would insure the most rigid inquiry. Governor Sulzer advised John B. Riley, superintendent of state prisons, at a conference that the investigation must be thorough.

Superintendent Riley later issued this statement:

"Thaw will, if possible, be brought back to Matteawan. The men engaged in the conspiracy to effect his escape will be located and prosecuted. A thorough investigation is being made and it is believed their identity can be established."

ASSERTS INNOCENCE.

Matteawan, N. Y., Aug. 19.—Attacking the Matteawan asylum authorities for their laxness of administration and maintaining that he is innocent of complicity with Harry K. Thaw in his plot to escape, Howard H. Barnum, the asylum attendant, made a statement giving in detail his movements when Thaw made his dash for liberty. Barnum is blamed by asylum authorities for allowing Thaw to escape.

WILL SUE FOR $1,500,000

Wisconsin to Press Claims Against Government.

La Crosse, Wis., Aug. 19.—The state of Wisconsin will press claims against the United States government for $1,500,000 as claims yet unpaid growing out of the swamp land grant.

The evidence in support of the Wisconsin claims has been carefully prepared by the state forestry commission under the direction of the former claim attorney of the state, Philip Lehner. The campaign for the recovery of the funds will be made before the next session of congress.

In 1850 congress set aside public lands by enactment for the state of Wisconsin in sections that are now occupied by the Le Court Relics, Lac De Flambeau and Menominee Indian reservations. Patents running to the state were issued, but for some reason never turned over to the state, and in 1854 the Indian reservations were located on the lands without further action by the government.

DEBATE IS DELAYING ACTION

House Democratic Caucus Wrestles With Currency Bill.

Washington, Aug. 19.—Currency "insurgents" continued their attack on the administration currency bill in the house Democratic caucus.

Representatives Calloway of Texas, Bowdye of Ohio and others talked against the bill, while Representatives Volwer of Oklahoma and Brown of West Virginia, members of the banking and currency committee, defended it.

The net result was a further delay in taking up the measure for amendments.

Representative Calloway declared he hoped there was "some way to bring pressure to bear to make the chairman of the currency committee or members who know, tell him it was that originally drew this bill."

MUTILATION AFTER MURDER

Mystery Surrounds Slaying of Woman Near Cincinnati.

Cincinnati, Aug. 19.—Mystery surrounds the finding of the body of a woman who had been murdered. Two revolver shots were fired into her head, which was then almost cut off. Her abdomen was ripped open and there were long cuts on her arms and limbs.

No clue to the identity of the woman or the murderer could be found. The body was found in a pool in a ravine near Sedamsville, a suburb. The woman was about twenty-five years old and fairly well dressed.

A gold ring found on her bore the initials "G. D. B."

BIG FOREST FIRE IS RAGING

Ten Square Miles in Adirondacks Burned Over.

Glen Falls, N. Y., Aug. 19.—One of the worst forest fires in the Adirondacks in many years is raging near West Bill Brook and, fanned by a strong north wind, is sweeping through the forest, destroying thousands of dollars' worth of valuable timber. Many farmers have deserted their homes.

The fire has burned over an area of ten square miles.

MARTIN GLYNN. Acting Governor Says Thaw's Escape Will Be Investigated.

DECIDES GLYNN IS ACTING GOVERNOR

New York Attorney General Renders Opinion.

Albany, N. Y., Aug. 19.—Lieutenant Governor Martin H. Glynn is the lawful chief executive of New York state, pending the outcome of impeachment proceedings against Governor Sulzer, according to an official opinion rendered by Attorney General Thomas Carmody to Secretary of State Mitchell May.

Mr. Carmody holds that the assembly was within its rights in instituting impeachment proceedings at an extraordinary session.

"When the governor is impeached by the assembly," says the opinion, "all of his powers are automatically suspended until he has been acquitted or the impeachment proceedings dismissed by the court of impeachment."

"In the meantime the lieutenant governor acts as governor. This is the plain intent of the constitution. Any other construction would nullify its express provision."

Neither Governor Sulzer, Lieutenant Governor Glynn or their counsel would discuss the attorney general's opinion.

KILLS CHILD AND HERSELF

Woman Told She Had Only Three Days to Live.

Denver, Aug. 19.—After having been told by a physician that she had only three days to live Mrs. Anna Hornstein, thirty-two years old, a sufferer from tuberculosis, poured poison down the throat of her three-year-old daughter, Paula, and then drank a portion of the drug herself.

When the neighbors broke into the house, two hours later, Mrs. Hornstein was dead. The child died later.

WILSON PUSHING FINANCIAL BILL

Congressmen Want to Get Away, but President Holds Them.

RACE ISSUE STILL ALIVE.

Pressure Brought to Bear to Compel Action on Woman Suffrage Amendment—Senator Ashurst, Custodian of the Resolution, Would Prefer Bringing It Up When It Is Stronger.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.
Washington, Aug. 19.—[Special.]—The administration is marching steadily forward in the direction of financial legislation. Sugar coated offers of hurrying a vote on the tariff bill are not accepted by the Democrats from those who want to postpone currency legislation. The men in congress might be willing to postpone, but the man in the White House is driving ahead.

It is not because there are strong objections to the proposed currency legislation, but because most of the men in congress object to staying here in Washington all summer and fall, that causes so much opposition to taking up financial legislation. Of course there are men who are very much opposed to the administration bill, but the principal objection is to the continuous sessions of congress.

Women Pushing Suffrage.
Woman suffrage advocates are insisting that congress shall take action now on the proposed amendment to the constitution allowing women to vote. They assert that equal rights are more important than either the tariff or currency. Consequently they have been bringing extra pressure to bear to secure action at this session.

And yet Senator Ashurst of Arizona, one of the strongest advocates of woman suffrage, who has the resolution in charge, says that he prefers to bring it up later, when it will be stronger than now. The senators know that it would be impossible to get consideration of the resolution at the special session and that it is doubtful whether favorable action will result even when it is taken up.

Race Differences Emphasized.
In causing the withdrawal of the name of a negro to be registered of the treasury the southern Democratic senators showed that the race issue was still alive. Recently Senator Clapp of Minnesota introduced a resolution making inquiry as to the segregation of races in the postoffice department, which he alleges will cost $150,000.

Postmaster General Burleson, whose order is questioned, has intense feelings upon the race question. While a member of the appropriations committee, even when in the minority, he was able to get through a provision which segregated the races to some extent. It took the women employees of a division from under the control of a negro chief. It is probable that Burleson, so far as possible, will keep the races apart.

Reporter and Chorus.
Instead of being punctiliously severe in presiding over the senate Vice President Marshall is mildly tolerant of the confusion and disorder, with an occasional sarcastic comment. "The chair must insist," he remarked the other day when half a dozen senators were talking at one time, "in the interest of the reporter and not in the interest of the chair, that there shall be some orderly method of procedure. The reporter cannot take a chorus."

Parcel Post Absurdities.
I have called attention to the fact that a book cannot be sent by parcel post because some one thought he was going to get the best of that kind of legislation. Here is another absurdity. If you wanted to send a package of grass seed weighing 4½ pounds in the first zone you would be charged 44 cents; if you called it bird seed it would cost 10 cents. Congressman Kindel of Colorado brought this matter out in the house the other day. That was where some grass seed people were able to get what they wanted.

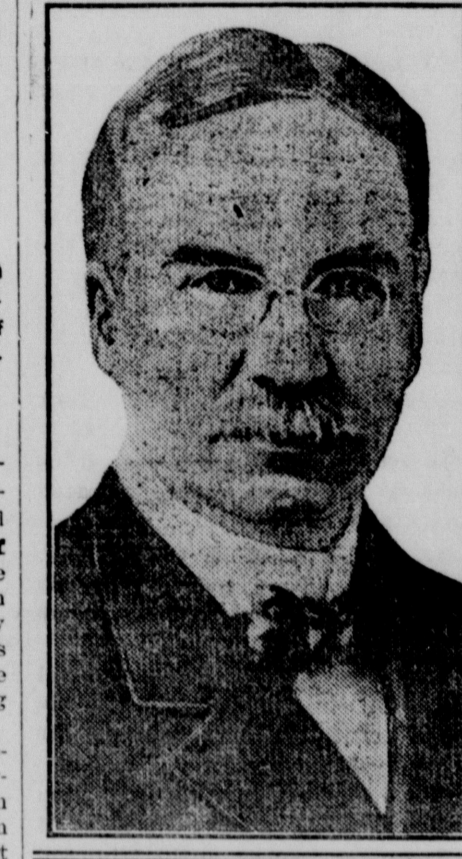

"Personal Explanations."
There were no less than three "personal explanations" in the senate one day recently. Senator Shepard of Texas explained about printing a long list of Mexican rebel forces in the Record. Senator Kern explained that he meant no offense to the great body of American navy officers when he referred to a certain set of "perfumed navy officers."

Senator Lewis explained that he was not the author of the bill for "father's day," which really belonged to Congressman Lewis of Maryland. The Illinois senator further explained that he did not make a speech presenting woman suffrage petitions, but that the splendid remarks attributed to him were those of Senator Lane of Oregon. It was quite a day for "explanations."

John Barrett on Hand.
Just at a time when all eyes are turned toward Mexico John Barrett, director general of the Pan-American union, comes forward with a "Handbook on Mexico," containing about all the known information that can be found concerning that distracted republic. President Wilson has found Barrett's book of great value in studying conditions in Mexico.

THEODORE P. SHONTS. Has Narrow Escape From Death Under French Train.

SHONTS HAS NARROW ESCAPE

American Falls Under Moving Train in France.

Paris, Aug. 19.—Theodore P. Shonts of New York, president of the Interborough Rapid Transit company, had a narrow escape from death when he fell beneath a moving railway train at Le Breuil.

A bystander pulled Mr. Shonts from between the wheels just in time to save the New Yorker from being run over. Mr. Shonts' hands and legs were cut severely.

When the accident occurred the train was stopped and Mrs. A. P. Moore (Lillian Russell), who was a passenger and had a first aid outfit with her, alighted and bandaged up Mr. Shonts' hurts.

QUOTES AUTHORS TO JUSTIFY HIS CRIME

New Yorker Kills Wife, Four Children and Himself.

New York, Aug. 19.—Leaving for the coroner a letter in which he apparently sought through quotations from philosophers and poets to justify the taking of life Henry W. Lake, chef in a restaurant, murdered his wife, his four children and shot himself, dying in a hospital.

Lake and his dead were discovered lying in their Brooklyn home several days after the crimes were committed. "I am tired of living," Lake wrote to the coroner. "My wife is slowly dying and our four children are small, delicate and sure to get trampled on in the struggle of life. It is best for them to return to unconscious dust with their parents (See Schopenhauer's 'Essay the Sufferings of the World')."

Lake was found faintly breathing. Beside him were a revolver and an automatic magazine gun. In a bed with a daughter Dorothy, twelve years old, lay Mrs. Lake, who was a sufferer with cancer. Estelle, fourteen, was on the floor, Walter, ten and Horace, one, were on the floor in another room. All had been shot to death.

Fire Fighter Killed.
Grand Island, Neb., Aug. 19.—Tony Pleischer, a fireman, was killed and about $70,000 in property was destroyed by fire. The fire threatened to traverse the heart of the railroad section.

ULTIMATUM TO UNITED STATES

VESSEL STRIKES UNCHARTED ROCK

Over Thirty Persons Perish Off Alaskan Coast.

NUMBER OF VICTIMS WOMEN

Steamer State of California Founders Three Minutes After the Accident.

Panic Occurs on Board and Wild Rush Is Made for Lifeboats—Some of the Lost Perish in Their State-rooms.

Juneau, Alaska, Aug. 19.—Twenty-five or more passengers, most of them women, and seven members of the crew of the Pacific Coast Steamship company's vessel State of California lost their lives Sunday when the ship struck an uncharted rock in Gambier bay at 8:30 a. m. Sunday and sank in three minutes.

Many of the passengers went down with the ship, imprisoned in their state-rooms.

Others were able to reach rafts and lifeboats, but died from exposure.

The pursuer lost all of his records and it is not possible to give a list of the missing.

The uninjured survivors, crew and passengers, are being taken to Seattle on the steamer Jefferson and will arrive there Thursday.

A great hole was torn in the bottom of the State of California. The vessel and cargo, mail and express, are a total loss. The ship was valued at $400,000. A number of horses for use on the Shushanna trail were lost.

The State of California, a large passenger ship, left Seattle Wednesday for Skagway and way points. Travel to the north is unusually heavy on account of the stampede to the Shushanna gold fields and nearly every steamer was occupied.

The vessel was running at full speed. The first breakfast bell had just rung and practically all the passengers were in their rooms preparing to go to the dining saloon.

The vessel slackened speed with a jerk. There was a crunching noise and she listed heavily. The call for all hands on deck was followed by an outpouring of panic stricken men, women and children.

Rush to Reach Lifeboats.
The crew began lowering lifeboats and rafts. There was a rush to reach them. The less excited of the men tried for a moment to quiet the panic. As the first boat swung from its davits over the side it was seen that there scarce would be time to launch all the boats and rafts.

There was no chance for escape by that time for those whose rooms were below deck. A number of state-rooms immediately adjoining the dining saloon, among the best accommodations on the vessel, were the first to be flooded. It is believed they were occupied.

Despite the panic and the brief interval before the engine rooms were flooded and the electric current cut off the wireless operator flashed the S. O. S. call many times.

The steamship Jefferson of the Alaska Steamship company, southbound, was the only vessel near enough to reach the State of California. She turned back and started for the wreck at full speed. When she arrived the survivors were in lifeboats and on rafts. The stricken vessel had disappeared.

The crew numbered fifty-two men. Captain Cann and forty men are on the steamship Jefferson returning to Seattle, seven perished and First Officer Abernathy and three men are standing by the wreck. The ship is sunk in deep water and there is no hope of salvage.

Ten of the passengers had suffered so severely from exposure that it was necessary to take them to a hospital in Juneau.

The State of California, a steamship of 2,256 gross tons, was built in 1870. For many years she had carried passengers between Puget Sound and San Francisco.

THIEVES MISS BIG HAUL

Get $10,000 in Jewelry but Overlooked Booty Worth $100,000.

Newport, R. I., Aug. 19.—Burglars who entered the Hermann jewelry store here obtained jewels and silverware valued at about $10,000, but were frightened away when additional booty worth $100,000 was theirs for the taking.

The burglars picked the lock on the front door and forced the locks on four show cases. An inventory showed that the missing pieces included twelve dozen stick pins, two diamond brooches and a number of small pieces.

UNABLE TO FIND
TRACE OF THAW

Police of United States and Canada Are Baffled.

HOPE FOR HIS RECAPTURE

New York Authorities Secure Warrant Charging Fugitive From Matteawan Asylum With Conspiracy, the Claim Being Made That Such an Offense Is Extraditable.

New York, Aug. 19.—The police of the United States and Canada have not picked up the trail of Harry K. Thaw.

They seek him not as the slayer of Stanford White or as an escaped lunatic, but on a warrant issued at Poughkeepsie charging him with conspiring with the aged keeper, Howard Barnum, and the five men who managed the asylum delivery.

On such a technicality does New York state base its hope of bringing about the fugitive's return.

Both factions of the double barreled government at Albany have promised rigid investigations and every effort to bring about his capture.

Thaw's seclusion was absolute. Out of the cloud of dust which swirled in the wake of the black automobile bearing him and his liberators from Matteawan Sunday morning nothing tangible had come except a laconic letter from Thaw himself, assuring his aged mother in New York that he desired rest and would, in due time, join her at the Thaw country place, Elmhurst, at Cresson, Pa.

Mrs. Thaw Receives Note.

Happy, girlish almost in her joy, Mrs. Thaw exhibited the hastily scrawled note from the son whose escapades have cost the family a million and added that whatever Harry did would meet with her approval.

This, in view of his announced intention of entering Pennsylvania, gave basis to the belief that Thaw was preparing to take his case before the courts of that state and, relying on the kink in American laws relative to the insane charged with no crime, to oppose extradition and duplicate in Pennsylvania, if possible, the course of John Armstrong Chaloner in Virginia.

It was in anticipation of such a move that the New York authorities caused the warrant to be sworn out at Poughkeepsie.

Conspiracy, according to the district attorney of Dutchess county, constitutes an extraditable offense.

Close associates to the family indicated that the groundwork of a legal fight in Pennsylvania had already been laid.

Dr. Britton D. Evans, the alienist who testified in Thaw's behalf at the murder trials, held a telephone conference with Mrs. Thaw and it was said that he would accompany her to Pennsylvania.

There are to be conferences with counsel and meantime, it is understood, Thaw is to remain in hiding.

Trail Completely Lost.

Figuratively, as well as literally, Thaw left behind him only a cloud of Dutchess county dust.

Rumors of his passage, description of black automobiles, tales of yacht boardings in Long Island sound, speckled the news. The yacht Endymion of George Lauder, Jr., a distant relative of the Thaws by marriage, found mention in the crop of rumors. After having left Vineyard Haven, Mass., the craft was reported as cruising somewhere in the sound, possibly not far from South Norwalk, Conn.

While there was nothing to support the theory that Thaw had taken to the seas this seemed to those who have followed the case to be the likeliest course.

One route from Matteawan lay north to Canada and thence south-west along the border of the Great Lakes and across Lake Erie to a north jutting nub of Pennsylvania. The other is the water route.

Aboard ship in the South Thaw could bide his time in comparative safety and make his way to Philadelphia via Delaware bay and the Delaware river.

In view of the fact that entrance into Canada might mean a clash with the immigration authorities there the theory was advanced that Thaw's advisers would not have him take any such risk.

District Attorney Accuses Fugitive of Conspiracy.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., Aug. 19.—If Harry K. Thaw has not left the country he will be arrested on a warrant charging him with conspiracy and returned to the Matteawan state hospital.

Action with this end in view was taken in a special term of the supreme court when Justice Joseph Morschauer issued a warrant for the arrest of Thaw, charging him with conspiracy with Keeper Howard Barnum and five other men in making his escape from Matteawan.

Similar warrants were also issued for Richard J. Butler, Roger Thompson, Michael O'Keefe, Eugene Duffy

and Thomas Flood, Thaw's alleged accomplices.

Keeper Barnum, the guard, who opened the hospital gate when Thaw escaped, has been held without bail for examination Thursday.

District Attorney Congor claims conspiracy is an extraditable charge and that Thaw can be brought back to Dutchess county, no matter to what state he fled.

Both Claimants to Governorship Agree on Inquiry.

Albany, N. Y., Aug. 19.—Harry K. Thaw's escape from the Matteawan state hospital will be thoroughly investigated by the state. Upon this the rival claimants for the governorship are agreed.

Acting Governor Glynn announced that he had taken steps that would insure the most rigid inquiry. Governor Sulzer advised John B. Riley, superintendent of state prisons, at a conference that the investigation must be thorough.

Superintendent Riley later issued this statement:

"Thaw will, if possible, be brought back to Matteawan. The men engaged in the conspiracy to effect his escape will be located and prosecuted. A thorough investigation is being made and it is believed their identity can be established."

ASSERTS INNOCENCE.

Matteawan, N. Y., Aug. 19.—Attacking the Matteawan asylum authorities for their laxness of administration and maintaining that he is innocent of complicity with Harry K. Thaw in his plot to escape, Howard H. Barnum, the asylum attendant, made a statement giving in detail his movements when Thaw made his dash for liberty. Barnum is blamed by asylum authorities for allowing Thaw to escape.

WILL SUE FOR $1,500,000

Wisconsin to Press Claims Against Government.

La Crosse, Wis., Aug. 19.—The state of Wisconsin will press claims against the United States government for $1,500,000 as claims yet unpaid growing out of the swamp land grant.

The evidence in support of the Wisconsin claims has been carefully prepared by the state forestry commission under the direction of the former claim attorney of the state, Philip Lehner. The campaign for the recovery of the funds will be made before the next session of congress.

In 1850 congress set aside public lands by enactment for the state of Wisconsin in sections that are now occupied by the Le Court Reilles, Lac De Flambeau and Menominee Indian reservations. Patents running to the state were issued, but for some reason never turned over to the state, and in 1854 the Indian reservations were located on the lands without further action by the government.

DEBATE IS DELAYING ACTION

House Democratic Caucus Wrestles With Currency Bill.

Washington, Aug. 19.—Currency "insurgents" continued their attack on the administration currency bill in the house Democratic caucus.

Representatives Calloway of Texas, Bowdye of Ohio and others talked against the bill, while Representatives Wolver of Oklahoma and Brown of West Virginia, members of the banking and currency committee, defended it.

The net result was a further delay in taking up the measure for amendments.

Representative Calloway declared he hoped there was "some way to bring pressure to bear to make the chairman of the currency committee or members who know, tell who it was that originally drew this bill."

MUTILATION AFTER MURDER

Mystery Surrounds Slaying of Woman Near Cincinnati.

Cincinnati, Aug. 19.—Mystery surrounds the finding of the body of a woman who had been murdered. Two revolver shots were fired into her head, which was then almost cut off. Her abdomen was ripped open and there were long cuts on her arms and limbs.

No clue to the identity of the woman or the murderer could be found. The body was found in a pool in a ravine near Sedamsville, a suburb. The woman was about twenty-five years old and fairly well dressed.

A gold ring found on her bore the initials "G. D. B."

BIG FOREST FIRE IS RAGING

Ten Square Miles in Adirondacks Burned Over.

Glen Falls, N. Y., Aug. 19.—One of the worst forest fires in the Adirondacks in many years is raging near West Bill Brook and, fanned by a strong north wind, is sweeping through the forest, destroying thousands of dollars' worth of valuable timber. Many farmers have deserted their homes.

The fire has burned over an area of ten square miles.

New York Attorney General Renders Opinion.

Albany, N. Y., Aug. 19.—Lieutenant Governor Martin H. Glynn is the lawful chief executive of New York state, pending the outcome of impeachment proceedings against Governor Sulzer, according to an official opinion rendered by Attorney General Thomas Carmody to Secretary of State Mitchell May.

Mr. Carmody holds that the assembly was within its rights in instituting impeachment proceedings at an extraordinary session.

"When the governor is impeached by the assembly," says the opinion, "all of his powers are automatically suspended until he has been acquitted or the impeachment proceedings dismissed by the court of impeachment."

"In the meantime the lieutenant governor acts as governor. This is the plain intent of the constitution. Any other construction would nullify its express provision."

Neither Governor Sulzer, Lieutenant Governor Glynn or their counsel would discuss the attorney general's opinion.

KILLS CHILD AND HERSELF

Woman Told She Had Only Three Days to Live.

Denver, Aug. 19.—After having been told by a physician that she had only three days to live Mrs. Anna Hornstein, thirty-two years old, a sufferer from tuberculosis, poured poison down the throat of her three-year-old daughter, Paula, and then drank a portion of the drug herself.

When the neighbors broke into the house, two hours later, Mrs. Hornstein was dead. The child died later.

WILSON PUSHING
FINANCIAL BILL

Congressmen Want to Get Away, but President Holds Them.

RACE ISSUE STILL ALIVE.

Pressure Brought to Bear to Compel Action on Woman Suffrage Amendment—Senator Ashurst, Custodian of the Resolution, Would Prefer Bringing It Up When It Is Stronger.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, Aug. 19.—[Special.]—The administration is marching steadily forward in the direction of financial legislation. Sugar coated offers of hurrying a vote on the tariff bill are not accepted by the Democrats from those who want to postpone currency legislation. The men in congress might be willing to postpone, but the man in the White House is driving ahead.

It is not because there are strong objections to the proposed currency legislation, but because most of the men in congress object to staying here in Washington all summer and fall, that causes so much opposition to taking up financial legislation. Of course there are men who are very much opposed to the administration bill, but the principal objection is to the continuous sessions of congress.

Women Pushing Suffrage.

Woman suffrage advocates are insisting that congress shall take action now on the proposed amendment to the constitution allowing women to vote. They assert that equal rights are more important than either the tariff or currency. Consequently they have been bringing extra pressure to bear to secure action at this session.

And yet Senator Ashurst of Arizona, one of the strongest advocates of woman suffrage, who has the resolution in charge, says that he prefers to bring it up later, when it will be stronger than now. The senators know that it would be impossible to get consideration of the resolution at the special session and that it is doubtful whether favorable action will result even when it is taken up.

Race Differences Emphasized.

In causing the withdrawal of the name of a negro to be registrar of the treasury the southern Democratic senators showed that the race issue was still alive. Recently Senator Clapp of Minnesota introduced a resolution making inquiry as to the segregation of races in the postoffice department, which he alleges will cost $150,000.

Postmaster General Burleson, whose office is questioned, has intense feelings upon the race question. While a member of the appropriations committee, even when in the minority, he was able to get through a provision which segregated the races to some extent. It took the women employees of a division from under the control of a negro chief. It is probable that Burleson, so far as possible, will keep the races apart.

Reporter and Chorus.

Instead of being punctiliously severe in presiding over the senate Vice President Marshall is mildly tolerant of the confusion and disorder, with an occasional sarcastic comment. "The chair must insist," he remarked the other day when half a dozen senators were talking at one time, "in the interest of the reporter and not in the interest of the chair, that there shall be some orderly method of procedure. The reporter cannot take a chorus."

Parcel Post Absurdities.

I have called attention to the fact that a book cannot be sent by parcel post because some one thought he was going to get the best of that kind of legislation. Here is another absurdity. If you wanted to send a package of grass seed weighing 4½ pounds in the first zone you would be charged 44 cents; if you called it bird seed it would cost 10 cents. Congressman Kindel of Colorado brought this matter out in the house the other day. That was where some grass seed people were able to get what they wanted.

"Personal Explanations."

There were no less than three "personal explanations" in the senate one day recently. Senator Shepard of Texas explained about proving a long list of Mexican rebel forces in the Record. Senator Kern explained that he meant no offense to the great body of American navy officers when he referred to a certain set of "perfumed navy officers."

Senator Lewis explained that he was not the author of the bill for "father's day," which really belonged to Congressman Lewis of Maryland. The Illinois senator further explained that he did not make a speech presenting woman suffrage petitions, but that the splendid remarks attributed to him were those of Senator Lane of Oregon. It was quite a day for "explanations."

John Barrett on Hand.

Just at a time when all eyes are turned toward Mexico John Barrett, director general of the Pan-American union, comes forward with a "Handbook on Mexico," containing about all the known information that can be found concerning that distracted republic. President Wilson has found Barrett's book of great value in studying conditions in Mexico.

American Falls Under Moving Train in France.

Paris, Aug. 19.—Theodore P. Shonts of New York, president of the Interborough Rapid Transit company, had a narrow escape from death when he fell beneath a moving railway train at Le Breuil.

A bystander pulled Mr. Shonts from between the wheels just in time to save the New Yorker from being run over. Mr. Shonts' hands and legs were cut severely.

When the accident occurred the train was stopped and Mrs. A. P. Moore (Lillian Russell), who was a passenger and had a first aid outfit with her, alighted and bandaged up Mr. Shonts' hurts.

QUOTES AUTHORS TO JUSTIFY HIS CRIMENew Yorker Kills Wife, Four Children and Himself.

New York, Aug. 19.—Leaving for the coroner a letter in which he apparently sought through quotations from philosophers and poets to justify the taking of life Henry W. Lake, chef in a restaurant, murdered his wife, his four children and shot himself, dying in a hospital.

Lake and his dead were discovered lying in their Brooklyn home several days after the crimes were committed. "I am tired of living," Lake wrote to the coroner. "My wife is slowly dying and our four children are small, delicate and sure to get trampled on in the struggle of life. It is best for them to return to unconscious dust with their parents (See Schopenhauer's 'Essay of the Sufferings of the World')."

Lake was found faintly breathing. Beside him were a revolver and an automatic magazine gun. In a bed with a daughter Dorothy, twelve years old, lay Mrs. Lake, who was a sufferer with cancer. Estelle, fourteen, was on the floor, Walter, ten and Horace, one, were on the floor in another room. All had been shot to death.

ULTIMATUM TO
UNITED STATESVESSEL STRIKES
UNCHARTED ROCK

Over Thirty Persons Perish Off Alaskan Coast.

NUMBER OF VICTIMS WOMEN

Steamer State of California Founders

Three Minutes After the Accident. Panic Occurs on Board and Wild Rush Is Made for Lifeboats—Some of the Lost Perish in Their Staterooms.

Juneau, Alaska, Aug. 19.—Twenty-five or more passengers, most of them women, and seven members of the crew of the Pacific Coast Steamship company's vessel State of California lost their lives Sunday when the ship struck an uncharted rock in Gambler bay at 8:30 a. m. Sunday and sank in three minutes.

Many of the passengers went down with the ship, imprisoned in their staterooms.

Others were able to reach rafts and lifeboats, but died from exposure. The pursuer lost all of his records and it is not possible to give a list of the missing.

The uninjured survivors, crew and passengers, are being taken to Seattle on the steamer Jefferson and will arrive there Thursday.

A great hole was torn in the bottom of the State of California. The vessel and cargo, mail and express, are a total loss. The ship was valued at $400,000. A number of horses for use on the Shushanna trail were lost.

The State of California, a large passenger ship, left Seattle Wednesday for Skagway and way points. Travel to the north is unusually heavy on account of the stampede to the Shushanna gold fields and nearly every steamer was occupied.

The vessel was running at full speed. The first breakfast bell had just rung and practically all the passengers were in their rooms preparing to go to the dining saloon.

The vessel slackened speed with a jerk. There was a crunching noise and she listed heavily. The call for all hands on deck was followed by an outpouring of panic stricken men, women and children.

Rush to Reach Lifeboats.

The crew began lowering lifeboats and rafts. There was a rush to reach them. The less excited of the men tried for a moment to quiet the panic. As the first boat swung from its davits over the side it was seen that there scarce would be time to launch all the boats and rafts.

There was no chance for escape by that time for those whose rooms were below deck. A number of staterooms immediately adjoining the dining saloon, among the best accommodations on the vessel, were the first to be flooded. It is believed they were occupied.

Despite the panic and the brief interval before the engine rooms were flooded and the electric current cut off the wireless operator flashed the S. O. S. call many times.

The steamship Jefferson of the Alaska Steamship company, south-bound, was the only vessel near enough to reach the State of California. She turned back and started for the wreck at full speed. When she arrived the survivors were in lifeboats and on rafts. The stricken vessel had disappeared.

The crew numbered fifty-two men. Captain Cann and forty men are on the steamship Jefferson returning to Seattle, seven perished and First Officer Abernathy and three men are standing by the wreck. The ship is sunk in deep water and there is no hope of salvage.

Ten of the passengers had suffered so severely from exposure that it was necessary to take them to a hospital in Juneau.

The State of California, a steamship of 2,256 gross tons, was built in 1879. For many years she had carried passengers between Puget Sound and San Francisco.

THIEVES MISS BIG HAUL

Get $10,000 in Jewelry but Overlook Booty Worth $100,000.

Newport, R. I., Aug. 19.—Burglars who entered the Hermann jewelry store here obtained jewels and silverware valued at about $10,000, but were frightened away when additional booty worth $100,000 was theirs for the taking.

The burglars picked the lock on the front door and forced the locks on four show cases. An inventory showed that the missing pieces included twelve dozen stick pins, two diamond brooches and a number of small pieces.

Flames Fatal to Two.

Janesville, Wis., Aug. 19.—Mrs. Barbara Banker, aged fifty-six, died from burns caused by the explosion of a gasoline can while she was lighting a stove. A son, Henry, was badly burned trying to save his mother. At Union Junction, Ruby Stone, aged three, found a match and lighted it, setting fire to bed clothes. She died of burns.

Mexican Government Demands Immediate Recognition.

MAY SEVER ALL RELATIONS

Washington Officials Are Somewhat Puzzled at New Developments and Are Not Inclined to Express Any Opinion—Huerta Regime Also Rejects American Plan to Restore Peace.

Mexico City, Aug. 19.—The United States government has been given until midnight by President Huerta to recognize Mexico, it is officially stated. The government is not specific in the public announcement as to what course then will be pursued, but it is understood that it means the severing of all relations between the two countries.

Senor Urrutia, minister of the interior, was chosen to make the announcement. A second note was sent direct to Washington and demanded that a reply to the demand for recognition be made before midnight. This is regarded here as an ultimatum.

Washington, Aug. 19.—Administration officials were puzzled when they received the announcement through press dispatches that Provisional President Huerta had delivered an ultimatum demanding recognition of his government in Mexico by the United States.

Secretary Tumulty at the White House read the press dispatch from Mexico City stating the intention of the Huerta government and immediately communicated it to Secretary Bryan.

Secretary Bryan said he had received merely cablegrams announcing the rejection by the Huerta government of the American suggestions for a peaceful settlement. In the absence of official confirmation Secretary Bryan said no announcement would be made by this government.

The Huerta government's rejection note reached Washington, when President Wilson, Secretary Bryan and Counselor John Bassett Moore of the state department discussed for nearly two hours the dispatches of John Lind, personal representative of President Wilson in Mexico, describing the attitude of the Huerta government.

May Lift Embargo on Arms.

In all likelihood events mean the end of any dealings with the Huerta officials. Though there was much talk in official circles of lifting the embargo on arms and permitting the Constitutionalists to get the munitions of war with which they claim they can soon overthrow the Huerta administration it is likely that such a policy will be carefully considered in the senate before any action is taken.

The position taken by administration officials was that the United States had done all that a friendly neighbor could do without actually using force.

They pointed out that from the beginning of the trouble in Mexico the United States had had two alternatives—friendly mediation or armed intervention.

No sentiment exists in this country to justify intervention or a war, they said, and no foreign government could insist on the sacrifice by the United States of thousands of lives and gigantic financial burdens merely to adjust an international dispute in which the United States is not a party—and over which it can have no jurisdiction without infringing on the sovereignty of another republic which it is by treaty obliged to maintain.

STRIKE INQUIRY POSTPONED

All but Three Mines in Missouri Lead District Flooded.

Farmington, Mo., Aug. 19.—Inquiry into conditions in the St. Francois county lead belt scheduled to begin before the state board of mediation and arbitration was postponed on account of the absence of a member of the board.

Six hundred striking miners came here to attend the hearing as representative of the lead companies whose mines are shut down on account of the strike which became effective Saturday.

With three exceptions all the mines in the lead belt are flooded.

THE WEATHER

Temperature record taken at Gull

August 1, maximum 73, minimum

The hunting season opens Sept. 7th
when ducks and chickens may be legally killed. Not long to wait and
the over zealous should remember
that someone is watching.

Good time to cut and kill the weeds
on that vacant lot or around your
premises now before they go to seed.
Besides it will look better this season
as well as reduce the pests next.

The welcome rains came just in time to benefit the late potato crop
although it interferes somewhat with
the haying. Farmers, however, are pleased with the general outlook.

The street improvements now going on in Brainerd is a matter of
considerable comment by visitors in the city. The improvement in the line of travel will be greatly appreciated when the paving contemplated
is finished.

The practice of using the iron lamp
posts for hitching posts should be stopped even if the police have to be
instructed to stable horses found tied
to them in a livery barn subject to charges. The electric lamps used for lighting are injured by the shaking
of the post and the damage thus occasioned must amount to considerable.

Little Falls is to have ten blocks
of "White Way," the council having
signed a contract with the Water Power company for ten years, the
company to make the installation and
the city will pay them $3.50 per month per post for current with the option of buying all or any part of
the system at any time and reducing
the cost 50 cents per post. The current will not be turned off from any
of the posts until midnight. Little Falls will find that it is the best improvement the city has installed in
many years.

He intended playing with the local rain cancelled the game. Chief Rog-

Akeley in a recent game and the team fell on to Newman and drove him out of the box. The final figures read 17 to 7 in favor of the Indians. Last Sunday the chief's nine played a built up Boy River team. A battery and several fielders had been imported from Superior and other points and the Boy Riverites were betting freely on their nine. For many innings the figures read 3 to 3. Then the debute came in the last inning and Boy
River went under the score reading
7 to 3 in favor of the Chippewas.

DUAL TELEPHONE SYSTEMS

A Well Known Brainerd Business Man Tells Why a Second System
Should be Shunned

"The local telephone situation appears to have reached a point where Brainerd is threatened with dual systems and as every user of a telephone is vitally interested, with everything to lose and nothing to gain by such an arrangement, I deem it my duty as one who has the best interests of my friends and neighbors at heart, to put them in possession of some facts relative to a subject that I have taken the trouble to give exhaustive study.
The first steps toward the organization of an opposition company to the Northwestern have been taken and representatives of the Minnesota Telephone company have been in the city for a number of days soliciting stock subscriptions and telephone subscribers. Much other initial work has also been done and it is therefore high time that the citizens generally understand just exactly what they are confronted with.

First and foremost, is there really any crying demand for a second telephone exchange in the city of Brainerd,
which, in order to give the service
patrons have a right to demand
will require years to build and equip.
The service here is said to be as good or better than any other city in the Northwest.

The Northwestern has spent more than $90,000 in hard cash in erecting a plant that is excellent in every respect, all of which seems to me to entitle them to the continued goodwill of its patrons. They have shown their faith in Brainerd by investing their money here and there is no sane reason why a second company should be encouraged. Two companies means two telephones, double expense without the slightest hope of bettering conditions, much conflict in the handling of business and no end of inconvenience.

I am reliably informed that the move of the opposition is a promotion plan, pure and simple and those going into it can not possibly hope to gain anything as a result of their venture.
Some time ago I was requested to

subscribe for a block of stock and contract for a telephone with the new concern, but before doing so determined to go into the situation thoroughly, which I have done. My conclusions are that Brainerd is very well taken care of by the Northwestern and that one company can adequately handle the business and with more satisfaction to telephone users
than two concerns can.

Some years ago the Northwestern
Telephone Exchange company bought an old, broken-down, open wire plant
from a local company that was furnishing unsatisfactory service to approximately 350 subscribers. Steps were later taken to rebuild and equip
the system, bringing it up to present efficiency to the end that the very best service might be given, and to do this $55,000 was spent in improvements and betterments, nearly all wires being placed under-ground or in cables. New telephones were installed throughout the city of the latter approved construction and a common battery board was put in, giving Brainerd one of the most modern systems in the Northwest. After this work was completed a campaign for new business was taken up and the list has been increased to 895 in the city. As a result of the untiring efforts on the part of the local manager several farm line companies have been organized with over 245 subscribers directly connected, thus giving the patrons of the Northwestern access to over 1140 telephones at the regular rates in vogue. All this has been done without the slightest intimation that the current rates were to be increased. This company also gives its patrons the benefit of direct communication with hundreds of cities over seventeen well-built copper metallic long distance lines, and offers a service at all times that no competing system can hope to give for many years. The proposed company has nothing to offer aside from general promises and one grounded iron circuit running along the south and west side of Mille Lacs lake, through Cuamla, Cove and into Milaca, where it connects with the Tri State Telephone company. This is the only grounded toll line coming into Brainerd and all the telephone users can have service over this line at any time as the business is handled over the Northwestern board, which would not be possible if the plans of the new company are carried out as the line would be connected on their own board.

It is alleged that the gentlemen
promoting the new company here
were former employees of the Tri State Telephone company and as a matter of fact are now representing that company under the clothing of the Minnesota Telephone company. If this is true, why should a concern of the wealth of the Tri State ask the citizens of Brainerd to finance this new exchange to fight the Northwestern who are their competitors?
I have absolutely no interests in either the Northwestern Telephone company or the proposed company
and make these statements unreser-
vedly, believing that duplicate telephone service means no end of trouble and expense.

I conscientiously believe that the citizens of Brainerd should stand as
a unit protesting against the installation of a second exchange.
If your rates are too high, or our
service not satisfactory we have a common council and a Commercial
club through whose efforts such a condition of affairs could easily be corrected.

Before signing a contract for telephones or stock in this competing
company, ask yourself the frank, honest question: "Is this a good thing
for Brainerd?" and then act as your
good judgment dictates."

Respectfully submitted
A TELEPHONE USER.

TUESDAY, AUGUST 19, 1913.

THE WEATHER
Temperature record taken at Gull
lake dam, by caretaker, Arthur L.
Ampel.
August 1, maximum 73, minimum
61. Rainfall .73 inches.

The hunting season opens Sept. 7th
when ducks and chickens may be legally killed. Not long to wait and
the over zealous should remember
that someone is watching.

Good time to cut and kill the weeds
on that vacant lot or around your
premises now before they go to seed.
Besides it will look better this season
as well as reduce the pests next.

The welcome rains came just in
time to benefit the late potato crop
although it interferes somewhat with
the haying. Farmers, however, are pleased with the general outlook.

The street improvements now going on in Brainerd is a matter of
considerable comment by visitors in
the city. The improvement in the line of travel will be greatly appreciated when the paving contemplated
is finished.

The practice of using the iron lamp
posts for hitching posts should be
stopped even if the police have to be
instructed to stable horses found tied
to them in a livery barn subject to
charges. The electric lamps used for
lighting are injured by the shaking
of the post and the damage thus occasioned must amount to consider-
able.

Little Falls is to have ten blocks
of "White Way," the council having
signed a contract with the Water
Power company for ten years, the
company to make the installation and
the city will pay them $3.50 per
month per post for current with the
option of buying all or any part of
the system at any time and reducing
the cost 50 cents per post. The current will not be turned off from any
of the posts until midnight. Little Falls will find that it is the best improvement the city has installed in
many years.

and make these statements unreser-
vedly, believing that duplicate telephone service means no end of trouble and expense.

I conscientiously believe that the
citizens of Brainerd should stand as
a unit protesting against the installation of a second exchange.

If your rates are too high, or our
service not satisfactory we have a
common council and a Commercial
club through whose efforts such a condition of affairs could easily be
corrected.

Before signing a contract for tele-
phones or stock in this competing
company, ask yourself the frank, honest question: "Is this a good thing
for Brainerd?" and then act as your
good judgment dictates."

Respectfully submitted

The council met in regular session
Monday evening and all members were present. The minutes of the last regular meeting were read and approved.

These bills were allowed and ordered paid: Northwestern Telephone Co. $1.70, H. D. Baker $2.17, Jay
Henry Long $100, McGinn & Smith
65c and Brainerd Steam laundry
$1.13.

The police committee reported on the application of Tom Bosley for a liquor license transfer. On motion of Aldermen Gallupe and Anderson the report was accepted and placed on file.

On motion of Aldermen Mahlum
and Betzold the purchasing committee, in conjunction with the city engineer, was ordered to purchase 1,200 feet of 6 inch sewer pipe.

On motion of Aldermen Betzold and Peterson the street committee, in conjunction with the city engineer,
was instructed to ascertain the condition of the East Brainerd bridge and submit an estimate of the cost of repairing the same to the council at the next regular meeting. Alderman Peterson said the bridge was dangerous. Alderman Smith said the sills were rotten. Alderman Betzold said the railing was shaky. City Engineer Peacock said the decking was badly worn. Mayor Henning said the bridge did a serpentine dance
when two hay wagons crossed it.

The matter of grading on 13th street, between Oak and the meat market, was on motion of Aldermen Mahlum and Stallman, left in the hands of the aldermen from the fourth ward in conjunction with the city engineer.

The street committee was instructed to have the foot path across the ravine on Laurel street opened.

Aldermen Haake and Mahlum, on motion, asked that the electric light committee be instructed to interview
the Northern Pacific railway officials regarding the changing of crossing lights to the type used by the city.

Alderman Haake registered a complaint of property owners regarding glass and nails thrown into the streets.

Commissioner Weidemann, of the water and light board, spoke to the council about the custom prevalent in Brainerd to make water connections and to use water until getting caught and then to pay when compelled to pay for it. He wanted a penalty attached to the illegal use of water, in other words to stealing water or light from the city, equal to half the amount due the city. City

THAW IN CANADA, ADMITS IDENTITY

Ottawa, Canada, August 19—The Canadian immigration authorities declared this afternoon that Harry K.
Thaw will be deported from Canada
under the immigration regulations as an undesirable alien. The rule under which this action will be taken provides that any person who within a few years of his incarceration in a penitentiary or insane asylum enters Canada may be sent back as an undesirable. Thaw is under arrest at Coaticook and admits his identity.

Colebrook, N. H., August 19—Harry Thaw is reported under arrest at Coaticook, province of Quebec. A man under arrest passed through here
on a train last night and later crossed the line into Canada. Deputy Sheriff Kelsey, of this town, who was on the train says the man admitted he was Thaw. Kelsey followed the man to Coaticook where he was ar-

ENGINEER APPLIES EMERGENCY

Engine Falls on Her Side, Derailing
Tender—Coaches Hold Track—
—No One Hurt

As the Twin Ports Limited entered the Brainerd yards at 7:50 last evening Locomotive No. 600, usually a staid and placid old engine, climbed the rails at the Fourth street crossing and jumped the tracks.

Engineer Charley Leaks applied
the emergency. The big engine reared around and took to the right side of the track and careened over,
falling flat on her side, derailing the tender. The coaches held the rails.

Fireman A. Hunt leaped out of the left side of the cab. Engineer Leak stayed with her and crawled out of the cab when she wheeled over. Both went at the engine and soon had her fires banked.

No one was hurt. Passengers universally praised the heroic conduct of Engineer Leak who stayed with his engine, reversed her and prevented a most serious accident.

The Twin Ports train was delayed about an hour and a half until a new engine was secured.

Today the wrecker has been at work righting the damaged locomotive
and it will be taken to the shops
for repairs.

CURBING ORDERED ON MANY STREETS

Attorney Ryan said a man could be fined for stealing water and the city could recover for the amount used.

John Taylor, of the Trades & Labor committee, asked the privilege of holding the sports program Labor Day in the streets and also extended an invitation to the official family to attend the celebration. The request was granted and the invitation accepted with thanks.

The street railway ordinance of the Minnesota Central Railway company was brought up and passed as mentioned in another article in the Dispatch.

Ordinance No. 251, relating to licenses in the city and applying to individuals and shows, opera houses, etc., was given its second reading, all voting aye. It was then passed on a third reading, all voting for the measure.

Ordinance No. 254 relating to the appointment of a board of sinking fund commissioners received its second reading and was adopted on the third reading, all voting for the same. The contractors' bond of Vaughn & Claussen was approved. The application for a transfer of a liquor license made by Tom Bosley was not granted.

Harley & Hanson, of Bemidji, made application to establish a shooting gallery. It was left to the police committee to act in conjunction with the city clerk, the firm having remitted the necessary $25 license.

In answer to a question, City Attorney M. E. Ryan said that steps were under way to prosecute a large number of people who had failed to pay their dog license tax.

J. P. Smith, of Iowa, representing the American Gas Construction Co., and City Attorney Ryan had a verbal tilt. Mr. Smith stated he had been coming to Brainerd on various trips since January 15 and had spent $600 for traveling expenses, incurred in presenting his proposition for a gas plant. He was in a position between now and September 5 to control sufficient capital to make the gas plant a success.

"I want the gas franchise bad," said Mr. Smith. "No man wants it worse than I do. I expect to manage the plant and will remove my family to Brainerd."

He said the committee had been appointed to consider the gas franchise and that a copy was to be sent to Consulting Engineer Pillsbury, of Minneapolis. Mr. Ryan, he said, appeared to have no time to give to the matter. Mr. Smith said he personally saw Mr. Pillsbury and the latter gave him a half-hour interview. Mr. Smith claimed it was unreasonable and outrageous for the city attorney to hold up this matter five weeks because he did not have five minutes time to read the franchise and send it down to Mr. Pillsbury. He wanted the council to act and have something definite done before September 5.

City Attorney Ryan said he understood that the Whitney, Collins and Smith franchises were to be sent to Mr. Pillsbury at the same time, together with his suggested changes, and that he would send them down as soon as he got through with them. Mr. Ryan protested that Mr. Smith could not rush him in his work.

A resolution was adopted that portions of the streets named be curbed, the curbing to be of sand and cement, eighteen inches high, the top eight inches, and to be six inches thick, and the remaining ten inches to taper from six inches to eleven inches at the bottom, and to be set and placed the distance from the property line as designated:

Juniper street between east line of Second street north and the west line of Ninth street north 22½ feet from the property line.

Ivy street between the east line of Bluff avenue west and the west line of Fifth street north 25 feet from the property line, and Ivy street between the east line of Seventh St. north and the west line of Ninth street north 22½ feet.

Holly street between the east line of Seventh street north and the west line of Ninth street north 22½ feet from the property line.

Grove street between the east line of Bluff avenue west and the west line of Ninth street north, 22½ feet from the property line.

The Minnesota Telephone company under the rights conferred by ordinance No. 208, having determined to construct a local telephone exchange, presented to the council a plat showing the streets and alleys which it desired to occupy and asked the approval of the council and permission to occupy same. The application was accompanied by $275 to be paid into the city treasury as provided by the ordinance. The application was signed by the secretary of the company, R. F. Wilder and was referred to the city attorney.

John R. Harrington, of Hibbing, addressed the following communication to the mayor, which was submitted to the council:

"I note by the Duluth News Tribune that your city has a possible chance for an iron mine from the indications of a dip needle made by a man of authority. This I understand is an 80 acre tract granted to the city by the late Judge Holland. We are in the market for promising leases in the way of iron ore and if your city has anything to offer we would be pleased to take over the 80 on a royalty basis or drill it by the foot. If you have anything to offer in this line kindly notify the writer at your convenience, stating how much per ton you want, etc., and we will go over the land and advise you as to what we consider it worth."

The communication was accepted and placed on file.

Mayor W. G. Nye, of Minneapolis, extended an invitation to the mayor and officers of the city to attend a meeting in Minneapolis for the purpose of organizing a municipal league. On motion of Aldermen Betzold and Mahlum it was ordered that Mayor R. A. Henning be sent as a delegate.

NO DOUBLE-BARRELED TELEPHONE SYSTEM SATISFACTORY

From the Democrat, Little Rock, Ark.:

The telephone today is a necessity. We could no more get along without it than we could without electricity or steam. It is one of the greatest time-savers known to this age of hurry and bustle. We should feel lost and cut off from the world if our residences, our shops, our offices and our multitudinous other institutions were not equipped with telephones.

A complete, well equipped telephone system, which gives prompt and efficient service, both in the city and its environs, is a valuable asset to any community. Not only has the telephone become indispensable to the city man, but it has won its place in the home of the farmer.

When, however, there is more than one telephone system installed in a city, the entire aspect of the situation is changed. We have seen cities in which rival companies had franchises and operated competing telephone systems. The result, instead of being beneficial, was chaotic. Business men who had formerly been paying for only one telephone found that they were compelled to maintain two, paying practically double for a far less satisfactory service. People not able to pay for two telephones found that they got only half-service, as the people they wished to communicate with often had only the rival telephone.—Adv't.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. CURBING ORDERED ON MANY STREETS

Attorney Ryan said a man could be fined for stealing water and the city could recover for the amount used.

John Taylor, of the Trades & Labor committee, asked the privilege of holding the sports program Labor Day in the streets and also extended an invitation to the official family to attend the celebration. The request was granted and the invitation accepted with thanks.

The street railway ordinance of the Minnesota Central Railway company was brought up and passed as mentioned in another article in the Dispatch.

Ordinance No. 251, relating to licenses in the city and applying to individuals and shows, opera houses, etc., was given its second reading, all voting aye. It was then passed on a third reading, all voting for the measure.

Ordinance No. 254 relating to the appointing of a board of sinking fund commissioners received its second reading and was adopted on the third reading, all voting for the same.

The contractors' bond of Vaughn & Claussen was approved. The application for a transfer of a liquor license made by Tom Bosley was not granted.

Harley & Hanson, of Bemidji, made application to establish a shooting gallery. It was left to the police committee to act in conjunction with the city clerk, the firm having remitted the necessary $25 license.

In answer to a question, City Attorney M. E. Ryan said that steps were under way to prosecute a large number of people who had failed to pay their dog license tax.

J. P. Smith, of Iowa, representing the American Gas Construction Co., and City Attorney Ryan had a verbal tilt. Mr. Smith stated he had been coming to Brainerd on various trips since January 15 and had spent $600 for traveling expenses, incurred in presenting his proposition for a gas plant. He was in a position between now and September 5 to control sufficient capital to make the gas plant a success.

"I want the gas franchise bad," said Mr. Smith. "No man wants it worse than I do. I expect to manage the plant and will remove my family to Brainerd."

He said the committee had been appointed to consider the gas franchise and that a copy was to be sent to Consulting Engineer Pillsbury, of Minneapolis. Mr. Ryan, he said, appeared to have no time to give to the matter. Mr. Smith said he personally saw Mr. Pillsbury and the latter gave him a half-hour interview. Mr. Smith claimed it was unreasonable and outrageous for the city attorney to hold up this matter five weeks because he did not have five minutes time to read the franchise and send it down to Mr. Pillsbury. He wanted the council to act and have something definite done before September 5.

City Attorney Ryan said he understood that the Whitney, Collins and Smith franchises were to be sent to Mr. Pillsbury at the same time, together with his suggested changes, and that he would send them down as soon as he got through with them. Mr. Ryan protested that Mr. Smith could not rush him in his work.

A resolution was adopted that portions of the streets named be curbed, the curbing to be of sand and cement, eighteen inches high, the top eight inches, and to be six inches thick, and the remaining ten inches to taper from six inches to eleven inches at the bottom, and to be set and placed the distance from the property line as designated:

Juniper street between east line of Second street north and the west line of Ninth street north 22 1/2 feet from the property lines.

Ivy street between the east line of Pluff avenue west and the west line of Fifth street north 25 feet from the property lines, and Ivy street between the east line of Seventh St. north and the west line of Ninth street north 22 1/2 feet from the property lines.

Holly street between the east line of Seventh street north and the west line of Ninth street north 22 1/2 feet from the property lines.

Grove street between the east line of Bluff avenue west and the west line of Ninth street north, 22 1/2 feet from the property lines.

Bluff avenue north between the east line of Second street north and the west line of Ninth street north 22 1/2 feet from the property lines.

Bluff avenue west between the north line of Holly to the south line of Bluff avenue north 22 1/2 feet from the property lines.

Third street north between the north line of Main street and the south line of Holly street 22 1/2 feet from the property lines.

Sixth street north between the Northern Pacific tracks and the south line of Juniper street 15 feet from the property lines.

Sixth street north between the north line of Holly street and the south line of Bluff avenue north 22 1/2 feet from the property lines.

A resolution was adopted that the north Sixth street between the north line of Main street and 22 1/2 feet south of the north line of Juniper street be paved, 5 inches thick of sand and cement according to plans on file in the office of the city clerk. The city engineer presented his estimate of the cost of the improvement:

Proportion of expense paid by city: Pavement $1,271.60 Curbing 93.00 Drainage 39.45 Grading 50.00

Total $1,454.05 Proportion of expense paid by the property owners: Pavement $2,835.80 Drainage 92.05
